

Prof. (Dr.) Nilesh Khare

Dean,
Faculty of Management and Commerce,
Jagran Lakecity University

Dr. Khare is an academician, corporate trainer, CEO coach, advisory board member, and management consultant with over 25 years of experience spanning consulting, social entrepreneurship, corporate life, and academia in India, the USA, and the UAE. Currently, he is a Professor of Strategy, Dean, Faculty of Management and Commerce, Jagran Lakecity Business School (JLBS) and JLU School of Commerce and Economics at Jagran Lakecity University, Bhopal. He serves as a member of the academic council and the board of management of the University. He is leading the transition of the schools and helping the university emerge as an international quality academic institute.

He occasionally visits IIMs and other institutes to teach in Ph. D. and MBA programmes. Nilesh serves on the mentor panel of IIM Kolkata Innovation Park, in the selection and mentor board of MP State incubator- BNEST. He also sits on the advisory boards of a US-based startup and an Indian NGO—Muskaan Dreams, dedicated to digitalizing poor and rural Govt schools. He worked with consulting majors such as KPMG, PwC, and the Henley Center. Nilesh earned his Ph.D. from Fisher College of Business, the Ohio State University, USA, and taught there. He has advised leading corporates and presented his research at various prestigious international conferences. He has published in ABDC and Scopus listed journals. He serves as an ad-hoc reviewer for journals such as JIBS, SEJ, JMS, and OS.